

architecture

a style or special
manner of building

democracy

government that is
run by the people who live under it

empire

a group of countries
or states under one
ruler or government

ideal

just as you would wish;
perfect

mythology

a group of legends or stories about a
particular country
or person