

beneath

under

buried

covered up
underground

chimney

a natural or human-made hollow, vertical structure for the passage of smoke, gas, or fire

earthquakes

sudden movements of Earth's crust followed
by a series of shocks

fireworks

explosions set off to create bright lights
and colorful displays
for entertainment

force

power or energy

trembles

vibrates; shakes

volcanoes

openings in Earth's crust
from which molten rock, dust, ash, and hot gases
flow or erupt