

admire

to look at with
wonder, pleasure,
and approval

custom

an old or popular way
of doing things

famous

very well known;
noted

mention

to tell or speak
about something

overnight

during the night

popular

liked by most people

public

of or for everyone;
belonging to the people

twist

a braid formed by weaving together three or more strands of
hair, ribbon, or yarn